Arrows

Par The Northern Hues

Album : The Northern Hues EP

You can feel it, don't wanna believe it,

I'd be fine, If I had a last time,

Now you see,

It's alright, take it all from me,

And it's alright,

I've been free, since you released me,

Heart of acid, and I had imagined,

I could be,

N' baby it's alright,

Save the night for me,

And it's alright,

I'll be, coming back again,

Holding you down,

Caught in the crossfire,

Where have you been till now?

It's alright, take it all from me,

and it's alright,

Arrows you've found,

Warning without sound,

Read but it can't tell how,

Baby it's alright,

Waste away with me,

It's alright,

I'll be, coming back again
