I'll Be the Other Woman

Par The Soul Children

Album : Stax: Top of the Stax, Vol. 1: Twenty Greatest Hits

I'll be the other woman

All your life

Just as long as I am the only one

Other than your wife

Your wife, how would she feel

If she caught us together

The same way I would feel

If I caught you with another

Home I know comes first

And second to that I'll be

When you're not there with her

I want you right here with me

I'll be the other woman

Just as long as I know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

I'll be the other woman

But I've got to know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

The neighbors are whispering

Saying you don't care

If you cheat on your wife for me

You'll cheat on me for someone else

I'll be your part time love

But that's as far as I'll go

To be your part time fool

Would be stooping a little too low

Loving a married man

This I really don't mind

But a married Casanova

Is a little out of my line

I'll be the other woman

Just as long as I know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

I'll be the other woman

Long as I know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

I'll open doors for you baby

Long as I know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

I'll be your part time love

I've got to know

I'm the only other woman

You make love to

Oh, yes I will

Yes, I will

Oh yeah

Oh, yeah, yeah

Oh, yeah, yeah
