Goodbye

Par The SUNDAYS

Album : Goodbye EP (UK)

I vow that it's goodbye

I vow that it's goodbye and God bless

Why did you have to assume

We're exactly the same?

Oh, no, no

Talk about yourself, self, self

I vow that it's goodbye to the old ways

Those stories were a good read

They were dumb as well

I could never be seen

Falling down on my knees crawling

Oh, no, no

Talk about a sell, sell, sell

Oh, let the heavens shudder, baby

I belong to you

Oh, they said you get what you deserve

And all they said was true

So, is this what it's come to?

Am I cold or just a little bit warm?

Oh well, just give me an easy life and a peaceful death

Yeah, yeah
