Lady Samantha

Par Three Dog Night

Album : The Collection

When the cold wind is screaming

And the evening is still

Lady samantha glides over the hill

In a long satin dress that she wears every day

Her home is the hillside, her bed is the grave

Lady samantha glides like a tiger

Over the hill with no one beside her

No one comes near

They all live in fear

Lady samantha, she sheds only tears

The tales that I told round the fire every night
Are out of proportion and none of them right
She is harmless and empty of anything bad
For she once had something that most of you have

Lady samantha glides like a tiger

Over the hill with no one beside her

No one comes near

They all live in fear

Lady samantha, she sheds only tears

She sheds only tears

(Solo)

Lady samantha glides like a tiger

Over the hill with no one beside her

No one comes near

They all live in fear

Lady samantha, she sheds only

Lady samantha, she sheds only

She sheds only tears
