Burn

Par Throwdown

Album : Vendetta (Disc 1)

Burn

You're living for one thing

Did you come this far to let life live you

And betray your heart disconnected,

By the doubt in your head

You've been scarred by failure but never again

In this life you only get one chance

At one thing trust in who you are and who you're becoming

'Cause when you thought life had come undone

You crush all those who spit in your face 'cause your time has

Your time has come

Your time has come (your time has come)

Time has come for you to burn

Time has come for you

The time for all of us to

The time has come for you

To burn everyone and everything

That said you were nothing

The time has come for you

The time for all of us to

The time has come for you

To burn everyone and everything

That said you were nothing, they said you were nothing

'Til they made you who you are destroy those lies

'Cause you've earned these scars disrespected

Time after time friend lied to and stepped on but never again

Only you and you alone can choose your path in life

You better fight 'cause there's nowhere to hide

No escape and nowhere to run

No turning back now 'cause your time has

Your time has come

Your time has come (Your time has come)

Time has come for you to burn

Time has come for you

The time has come for all of us to

to burn everyone and everything that said you where nothing down

The time has come for you

The time has come for all of us to

to burn everyone and everything that said you where nothing down

Burn them to the ground, burn! Burn! Burn!

Burn them to the ground, burn them to

Burn!

The time has come for you

The time has come for all of us to

The time has come for you

To burn everyone and everything that said you where nothing
