Crane Song

Par TOLEDO

Album : Hotstuff [Deluxe Edition]

There was a crane beside my bed

It lay about while we slept

And you could make it fly for you

And I tried to show my knees to you

I did.

I was the fox and you were my rose

You showed me how a boy could grow

And things would change you gave me time

When i was yours and you were mine

Oh, red and white poppies

All in a line

But you won't follow

The arrow - steady now

There is a crane beside me waiting

I get carried away on the wind that's blowing

'Cause you can make me fly to you

All the brash and brazen things you do

Don't wanna talk, just wanna feel your love

My pretty lily bud

Things would change, you'd bloom in time

If I was yours and you were mine

I did...

I lose my mind, you pull my chord

You ask to meet me on your front porch

How sad to see you

Nothing has changed in me

You left a mark beneath my sheets

A little bird - fluttering

She speaks in words

I know them from long before

...But I wanna be

The alchemy in you
