Pollution

Par Tom Lehrer

Album : That Was The Year That Was

(Introduction, spoken:)

Time was when an American about to go abroad would be warned

By his friends or the guidebooks not to drink the water.

But times have changed, and now a foreigner coming to

This country might be offered the following advice:

If you visit American city,

You will find it very pretty.

Just two things of which you must beware:

Don't drink the water and don't breathe the air!

Pollution, pollution!

They got smog and sewage and mud.

Turn on your tap

And get hot and cold running crud!

See the halibuts and the sturgeons

Being wiped out by detergeons.

Fish gotta swim and birds gotta fly,

But they don't last long if they try.

Pollution, pollution!

You can use the latest toothpaste,

And then rinse your mouth

With industrial waste.

Just go out for a breath of air

And you'll be ready for Medicare.

The city streets are really quite a thrill—

If the hoods don't get you, the monoxide will.

Pollution, pollution!

Wear a gas mask and a veil.

Then you can breathe,

Long as you don't inhale!

Lots of things there that you can drink,

But stay away from the kitchen sink!

The breakfast garbage that you throw into the Bay

They drink at lunch in San José.

So go to the city,

See the crazy people there.

Like lambs to the slaughter,

They're drinking the water

And breathing (cough) the air!
