Famous

Par Tom Macdonald

Album : Youtube

I'm the king of the town, I shit on it like I own this place

But I just walk along quietly

And when I'm out, I keep my head down 'cause they know my face

I hope that nobody finds me

I'm a rockstar, saw me on the cop car

Heard me screaming, "White boy", mama, I done got far

I got hella money, everything I want

Everybody loves me, I'm not having fun

Living a good life in a bad way

Looking for good times, finding the bad days

Everything is great, go ahead and check my page

Got another million views, got another million plays, yeah

I'm so fucking famous, put me on your playlist

Yeah, I'll sign your CD, want a picture? Take it

Everything is fake like the smile that's on my face

Like this grill and like these chains, I am everything I hate, but

I'm so fucking famous, I'm a fucking rockstar

Dad, I fucking hate this, mama, I done got far

I feel like I'm falling apart, I've been beaten, but it's not my heart

I'm lost in the dark, my hand out in front of my face

I'm feeling for anything hard, I reach with my arms

The walls and the ceilings are far, and I'm bleeding, surrounded by sharks

I just need a spark

To see if the demons I'm fleeing have followed me here from the start

I scream at the stars

I'm dreaming of speaking with God when I'm sleeping, it ends with alarms

I'm feeding my scars

With secrets I'm keeping so deeply, it's squeezing the blood from my heart

There's a person in me getting lost in the trees till I'm up on the stage and I freeze

I just need a car and a key, I will start it and leave, when I'm far, then I'll get out and scream

I'm a rockstar, saw me on the cop car

Heard me screaming, "White boy", mama, I done got far

I got hella money, everything I want

Everybody loves me, I'm not having fun

Living a good life in a bad way

Looking for good times, finding the bad days

Everything is great, go ahead and check my page

Got another million views, got another million plays, yeah

I'm so fucking famous, put me on your playlist

Yeah, I'll sign your CD, want a picture? Take it

Everything is fake like the smile that's on my face

Like this grill and like these chains, I am everything I hate, but

I'm so fucking famous, I'm a fucking rockstar

Dad, I fucking hate this, mama, I done got far
