Man In The Sky

Par Tom Macdonald

Album : Proud To Be A Problem

There's a man on TV, at a desk in a suit

He lies through his teeth and they still call it the news

There's a man in a white coat, whose medicine kills

He loves when you're sick, 'cause you pay for his pills

There's a man at the bank, who will give you a loan

So, that you'll buy a house, and then he'll take your home

There's a man who wants you spending your life online

'Cause you're searching for truth, but controls what you find

We'll be fine bae, if we don't make it through

There's a man, in a church, who I really hope told me the truth

Said there's a man in the sky, watching over me and you

It don't help if you can fly, He's way past the moon

And there's men here on the ground, that just wanna burn it down

They want money, they want power, don't want no one else allowed

We'll be fine bae, I'll be the man for you

There's a man in the courts, sworn to uphold the law
But he's crooked as a fence post, and don't do his job
There's a man in a classroom, who should know the facts
But he's brainwashin' kids, teaching English and Math
There's a man in your phone, who hears everything you say
He knows everywhere you go, every joke you ever made
There's a man with a bloodline, that owns the whole world
Every airplane, and building, and gold brick, and pearl
We'll be fine bae, if we don't make it through (ooh, ooh)

There's a man, in a church, who I really hope told me the truth

Said there's a man in the sky, watching over me and you

It don't help if you can fly, He's way past the moon

And there's men here on the ground, that just wanna burn it down

They want money, they want power, don't want no one else allowed

We'll be fine bae, I'll be the man for you

Pray that the man in the sky's watching over us tonight

'Cause there's people looking down on us for fighting for what's right

Hold the line bae, and I'll hold on to you

There's a man in the clouds, and I hope He's looking down

'Cause there's people here on Earth who tryna put us in the ground

We'll be fine bae, I won't let go of you

Said there's a man in the sky, watching over me and you

It don't help if you can fly, He's way past the moon

And there's men here on the ground, that just wanna burn it down

They want money, they want power, don't want no one else allowed

We'll be fine bae, I'll be the man for you
