I Will Remember

Par Toto

Album : Livefields (Limited Edition)

I was born in the land of the sun

And the tall green grass

And I don't understand

How all this has come to pass

How we've come to surround ourselves

In a sea of thieves

In a land without learning

Only the fools believe

I went driving last night

On a dark canyon road

Had the sky to myself

But I wasn't alone

Had the pain of my lifetime

For my company

How did it end up like this

For you and me

When love breaks the promise the heart has to keep

It leaves only truth here to find

When the spirit is crushed and the hurt is so deep

Between you and I

Even when love has come and gone

And our hearts have moved along

I will remember

There was a time we had the trust

And that always was enough

I will remember

I will remember you

As I open my eyes to one more day

The wind burns my face

As it whispers your name

As it's pulling me forward

It tears me free

And the only thing left is the tears for you and me

'Cause when love breaks the promise the heart has to keep

It leaves only truth here to find

When the spirit is crushed and the hurt is so deep

Between you and I

Even when love has come and gone

And our hearts have moved along

I will remember

There was a time we had the trust

And that always was enough

I will remember

Even when love has come and gone

And our hearts have moved along

I will remember

There was a time we had the trust

And that always was enough

I will remember

I will remember you
