Lionized

Par Tragically Hip

Album : 2015-01-16 - House Of Blues - Cleveland, OH

Cold wind blowing over your private parts

I know a lack you've got and it makes a strong case for art

Billboard breasts, they don't have a face

I know that fact you've got no girl could ever trace

Lionized, lionized

Smoking just a little too violently

I know that fact I've got and I know it single-mindedly

Stupid, stoned, cause and effect

I know a lack you've got and you don't even lack it yet

Lionized, lionized

Lionized, lionized

Tableau vivant

Roman a'clef

I can't draw but I can trace

I know a lack I've got, an abundance of extra space

Cold wind blowing over your private parts

I know a lack you've got is to make a strong case for art

Lionized, lionized

Lionized, lionized

Tableau vivant
