Ltd. Appeal

Par Tyde

Album : Three's Co.

On a pelican flight

Over the crest

You're finding the light

You know second best

The dolphins disperse

And many live there

Are you surfing for Jesus, son?

Do you follow the word?

Do you figure that the deal

Has got limited appeal?

It won't matter who you steal

Your moves from

Maybe born on a farm

Maybe live on a plain

Think the sound is so sweet

Think it sounds all the same

May be surrounded by beauty

Or in a world of hurt

May be covered in diamonds

Or covered in dirt

Still, you figure that the deal

Has got limited appeal

It won't matter who you steal

Your look from

'Cause it's all done

'Cause I figure that the deal

Has got limited appeal

It won't matter who I steal

My sound from

But I'm on the run

And there's still time left for fun

Halfway to the end

Ain't gonna pretend

I might blow it again

'Cause me and my girl

Got something so real

We've achieved a magic feel

And you and your friend

Think you know the deal

It's got limited appeal, yeah
