One Wish

Par Tyron Hapi Jleo feat. KARRA

Album : ???? ???????????????

I've done all I can do for you

Felt through the dark, but I couldn't find you

We fell apart from the walls that confine you

I stayed awake, searching for a hope underneath your web of lies

You fade away like the smoke in my mind

I only have one wish for you

That your heart breaks free of the silence

I have one wish for you

That you learn to see in the blindness

And I've ran out of choices

Following voices, relinquishing control

I only have one wish, one broken part of the truth

I've done all I can do for you

(For you)

(I've done all I can do for you)

I've done all I can do for you

I've done all I can do for you

I've done all I can do for you

Nothing to give, 'cause you took all my reasons (Oh)

I follow the wind and the changing seasons

I stayed awake, searching for a hope underneath your web of lies

You fade away like the smoke in my mind

I only have one wish for you

That your heart breaks free of the silence

I have one wish for you

That you learn to see in the blindness

And I've ran out of choices

Following voices, relinquishing control

I only have one wish, one broken part of the truth

I've done all I can do for you

I've done all I can do for you

I've done all I can do for you

I've done all I can do for you
