06 - No Religion

Par Van Morrison

Album : Days Like This

We didn't know no better

And they said it could be worse

Some people thought it was a blessing

Other people think that it's a curse

It's a choice between fact and fiction

And the whole world has gone astray

That's why there's no religion

No religion, no religion here today

And there's no straight answers (no straight answers)

What this thing called love is all about?

(What this thing called love is all about?)

Some say it's unconditional

(Some say it's unconditional)

Other people just remain in doubt

(Other people just remain in doubt)

Well, I cleaned up my diction

I had nothing left to say

Except there's no religion

No religion, no religion here today

And they ask what hate is

(They ask what hate is)

It's just the other side of love

(Just the other side of love)

Some people want to give their enemies

(Some people want to give their enemies)

Everything they think that they deserve

(Everything they think that they deserve)

Some say, "Why don't you love your neighbors?"

(Why don't you love your neighbors?)

Go ahead and turn the other cheek

(Go ahead and turn the other cheek now)

Nobody on this planet (on this planet)

That can ever be so meek

(That can ever be so meek)

And I can't bleed for you

(I can't bleed for you)

You have to do it your own way

(You have to do it your own way)

And there's no religion

No religion, no religion here today

No religion, no religion

No religion here today

And they ask what hate is

(Ask what hate is)

That's the other side of love

(That's the other side of love)

Some people want to give their enemies

(Some people want to give their enemies)

Everything they think that they deserve

(Everything they think that they deserve)

Others say, "Why don't you love your neighbors?"

(Why don't you love your neighbors?)

Go ahead and turn the other cheek

(Oh, go ahead and turn the other cheek now)

Have you ever met anybody

(Have you ever met anybody)

Who's ever been that meek

(Who's ever been that meek)

And it's so cruel (it's so cruel)

Expect to savior to save the day

(Oh, save the day)

And there's no religion

No religion, no religion here today

And there's no mystery

And there's nothing hidden

And there's no religion here today

And there's no mystery

And there's nothing hidden

And there's no religion here today

And there's no religion

No religion, no religion here today
