Falling

Par VARIOUS ARTISTS

Album : In Search Of Sunrise 6 CD2

Some day the wind will change and you will see me clearly

One day these dreams of mine will bring me to my time

Some day i will become what i am meant to be coming to

One day but that's a million some days from today

Lately the sunshine makes a different shape around

Lately my music has a different sound to show me

Lately i ask questions of the world but no one is listening

Tell me when i go to sleep what will the morning bring me?

Falling, falling, falling, or am i flying?

Flying, flying, flying, or am i falling?
