Pietasters - Ocean

Par Various

Album : Vans "Off the Wall" Sampler

Oh lady, I'd fill a mountain, I'd swim 'cross the ocean, for your love

I said lady, watch closely behind you, I'd search and I'd find you,

for your love

Where you gonna go now, I will follow, where you gonna go now,

I will follow you

Hey lady, I'd climb through your window,

I'd love you and end though, for your love

A guy like me, well I might not thrill you,

A guy like me, said I just might kill you

I won't wait around for you love

Where you gonna go now, I will follow

Where you gonna go now, I will follow you

Oh lady, I'd fill a mountain, I'm covered in lotion,

for your love

I said lady, I'd swim 'cross the ocean,

So lucky and chosen, for your love

Where you gonna go now, I will follow,

Where you gonna go now, I will follow you

Where you gonna go now, I will follow,

Where you gonna go now, I will follow you

Where you gonna go now, I will follow,

Where you gonna go now, I will follow you
