Edge Of A Broken Heart (Acoustic Studio Version)

Par Vixen

Album : Live Fire

I can't believe I could have been so blind, but love is strange

I thought about it for a long, long time, but the truth remains

And I don't need another lonely night to dry my tears

The answer's plain as black and white, and I can see the picture very clear

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

I don't wanna fall, I don't wanna crawl

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

Don't you wonder why I gotta say goodbye, ooh

It isn't like you never had the chance to change your tune

Did you think that I'm a dime a dance, well, the dance is through

And I've been doing things for way too long

But baby, that's over (baby, that's over)

It won't be easy but I gotta be strong

An' if I wanna cry, I don't need your shoulder

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

I don't wanna fall, I don't wanna crawl

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

Don't you wonder why I gotta say goodbye

I'll find someone else

Who's nothing like you

Two can play the game as well

An' you're gonna be sorry, baby, when it's over, ooh

Well, I've been doing things for way too long

Baby, that's over (baby, that's over)

It won't be easy but I gotta be strong

An' if I wanna cry, I don't need your shoulder

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

I don't wanna fall, I don't wanna crawl

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart

Don't you wonder why I gotta say goodbye

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart (I-oooh)

I've been living on the edge of a broken heart (mm, uhh)

No, I don't wanna fall

And I don't wanna crawl

I-oh, uh-oh, uh-oh

Ooh-oooh
