Marco is waiting on the bed

Marco smiles and I turn red

Marco is always in my head

Marco, Marco, you make it feel so real

It's like you actually like me

He's so dangerous and sweet

Marco, Marco, I wonder what you want

I feel like we get along, so what you got goin' on?

I wanna see you again, like maybe we can be friends

But I bet everybody wishes they could be your friend

Marco is waiting on the bed

Marco smiles and I turn red

Marco is always in my head

Marco, Marco's lips are electric

Marco's face makes me act pathetic

Marco's hips know I need a medict

Marco made me an addict

Marco, Marco, Marco, you changed my life

I can't handle the thought of this

Meaning nothing to you
