Threaten Physical Force (Paused)

Par Waking the Cadaver

Album : Authority Through Intimidation

If you run your fuckin mouth then you're dead

So keep it shut

I'd hate to inflict pain just to shut you up

Fear is a powerful thing

Threatening hostile force by physical means

Punishment through violence is how I stay anonymous

Intimidate to silence, reprisal for ratting

Pain, my persuasive tool

If you squeal like a pig

I'll be forced to act cruel

Murdering everything that you fucking love

Sledgehammer to your wife, a knife to your son

I'd bet you'd hate to wake up to all your loved ones gone

But that's the price you'll pay if you sing canary songs

Blood will be on your hands

So tread carefully when your on the stand

Snitches get stitches and I will suture them myself

Loose lips don't sink ships but they'll get you fucking dealt

Murdering everything that you fucking love

A bullet in your daughter or I'll have your parents hung

I'd bet you'd hate to wake up to all your loved ones gone

But that's the price you'll pay if you sing canary songs

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening your life

Pulverized witness begging for forgiveness

Pulverized witness begging me to die

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Fearing for your life

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Crippled by my words

Don't tempt me to use my special set of skills

Witnesses before you suffered and were killed

Skinned alive, next chopped up, then incinerated

Signs of you, your family, all obliterated

Threatening physical force, witness intimidation

Threatening physical force, rescinding your attestation

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Threatening physical force

Keep your fucking mouth shut!!
