Please Be Patient Wit

Par Wilco

Album : Sky Blue Sky

I should warn you, when I'm not well

I can't tell

Oh there's nothin' I can do

To make this easier for you

You're gonna need

To be

Patient with me

I'm this apple, this happening stone

When I'm alone

Oh but my blessings get so blurred

With the sound of your words

I'm gonna need

You to be

Patient with me

How can I warn you when my tongue turns to dust?

Like we've discussed

Doesn't mean that I don't care

It means I'm partially there

You're gonna need

To be

Patient with me
