Cry Of The Damned

Par Wings of Steel

Album : Live In France

Beyond the illusion

The fantasy of fools where

The old ones sail away

On the shadows of the new

Scream

And shout

But know that before

Too late you'll hear the cry of the damned

Oh we rise and fall together

In a perfect harmony

The search goes on forever we're lost in chains

Hear the cries

Deny the confusion

Throw away the key

Don't hide inside the cobwebs you call home

You bleed

You cut

You'll see

Now it's too late to fear the cry of the damned

Oh we rise and fall together

In a perfect harmony

The search goes on forever we're lost in chains

Hear the cries

Hear them crying

Cry, cry

Cry it out

Oh we rise and fall together

In a perfect harmony

The search goes on forever we're lost in chains

Do you know

Of the shadows over heaven

And the magic under hell

We rise and fall together we're lost

Hear the cries

Cutting through the night

There was no warning

Have they lost their eyes

Cry of the damned
