Album : 2005-10-13: The Wireless, Australia

I fell down in the desert baby, yeah

I had nothing but a piece of paper, oh yeah

I had to write something down

And I found myself alone

Then I let go of everything

Into another dimension

Purple haze is in the sky

See the angels wicked eye

All these things we must try

'Til we see the reasons why, oh yeah

Lightning crash on the hill tonight, yeah

I got a feeling everything is gonna be alright

Then a horse came running to me

Said we're gonna go to the sanctuary

Then a storm began to blow

Into another dimension

Purple haze is in the sky

See the angels wicked eye

All these things we must try

'Til we see the reasons why, oh yeah

I got lost in the desert baby, yeah

I found temples made out of paper, oh yeah

They were drummin' with golden bones

Buildin' dreams up out of homes

Then I let go of everything

Into another dimension
