Death To The Holy

Par Xandria

Album : Theater Of Dimensions (Limited Edition) CD1

See hypocrisy, in bloodred shade all wisdom raped

They feed their curse with poisoned words

And lead us to their inferno

Need the angels' creed, their kingdoms rise built upon lies

The deaths we mourn, their lives forlorn

Feel welcome to their freak show

Oh see the sky turning black everywhere

Our revolution is here

Follow the secret call and see through the crystal ball

The time for the oath has come, for ending the story

Walk through the open gate, behind you the broken land

Let's all make a final stand

Death to the holy

See humanity in golden chains, but full of stains

We walk their path, deceiver's wrath

Selling all our freedom

Break the demons' wave to let us be in unity

In search of mind, all that's behind the universe and its reason

Oh see the sky turning black everywhere

Our revolution is here

Seeking the truth

Wisdom shall rule

Follow the secret call and see through the crystal ball

The time for the oath has come, for ending the story

Walk through the open gate, behind you the broken land

Let's all make a final stand

Death to the holy

(Hate ruling, dark ages, swords falling, death rages)

For thousands of years this plague has been ruining us

(Greed killing, truth murdered, no freedom, false order)

Destroying dreams, lives, the truth. We should have learned how to save us all

Finding the truth

Wisdom shall rule

Finally our spell is cast, now make our freedom last

All of the rivers crossed

We won't be lonely

I'll follow you - oh crystal ball!

(Follow the secret call and see through the crystal ball)

(The time for the oath has come, for ending the story)

Oh I will walk through the open gate

(Walk through the open gate, behind you the broken land)

(Let's all make a final stand)

Death to the holy

Once - once our time will come

We will all be one

Carry our flame to heaven

Burn forever!
