Higher Vibration

Par Ziggy Marley & The Melody Make

Album : Spirit Of Music

These city walls are like a prison

We've got to keep on living with our backs against the wall

We are creatures of love, victims of hate

We've got to keep on living with our backs against the wall

No, no, no

Started living on a higher vibration

Now we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Started living on a higher vibration

Now we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Perfection of divinity is everyone is beauty

Perfection of divinity is everyone is beauty

Don't waste your time livin' for the vanity

We are creatures of fate, victims of destiny

Which we create, now we living on a higher vibration

'Cause we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Now we're living on a higher vibration

'Cause we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

You know what I'm talkin' 'bout

Don't, don't tell me, no

Baby, I could scream and shout, but I won't

This is a human experience on another sphere

Let's the human existence on another wavelength

Listen to me now, yeah, yeah, yeah

Now we're living on a higher vibration

Now we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Now we're living on a higher vibration

But we take it to the height of creation, yeah

Let me take you little higher (higher vibration)

And then you take me little higher (height of creation)

Let me take you little higher (higher vibration)

And then you take me little higher (height of creation)
